
ALEXANDER HAMILTON
JUNIOR/SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

TEEN LEARNING CENTER – (TLC)

The Teen Learning Center is comprised of Alexander Hamilton’s highly qualified faculty members who are available to provide individual tutoring services to students who need or assistance in academic areas including Math, Science, Social Studies and English.

The primary goals of TLC are to:

- Provide a quiet place for students to work.
- Offer tutoring by highly qualified faculty.
- Provide access to computers and the internet for research and other school related work.
- Promote a positive social learning environment for the students.

HOMEWORK HELP – (HH)

Homework Help was created to provide students with a safe, quiet and organized place to do homework after school under the supervision of our experienced faculty. Our teachers are equipped to offer general assistance to our students as needed.

In addition to:

- Providing a supervised and quiet place for students to do individual work or group assignments. HH also:
- Offers general assistance by experienced faculty.
- Promotes peer mentoring and collaboration.
- Provides access to computers and the internet for research and other school related work.
- Promotes a positive social learning environment for the students.

“Who is eligible to attend TLC and HH?”

The Teen Learning Center and Homework Help are available to all students, grades 7-12.

“Can I go on my own or do I have to be referred?”

It is not necessary to be referred to attend or participate in either The Teen Learning Center or Homework Help. The Teen Learning Center and Homework Help are programs that parents and teachers use as a resource for students who need additional assistance.

“Where do I go once I’ve decided I would like some additional help or a quiet place to work?” See below.
